MAY MEETING SALUTES STOCCORO

Our May meeting was held at ARI's El Segundo Office as a tribute to West Coast Director Pietro Stoccoro, who is leaving to accept the post of Chief Director for the Scandinavian countries. On Behalf of the club, Marc Marcantoni presented Mr. Stoccoro with a bronze on wood plaque, decorated with the American and Italian flags and the club's emblem, all in full color, with an inscription expressing our hope that his leaving will be "arrivederci," and not "addio." Mr. Stoccoro said his initial impression of our country was that we are hard to make friends with, but that he leaves feeling part American himself - as a true friend and great supporter.

Registration at Alfa Expo West

If you failed to pre-register for this weekend's events, don't give up! You can register either at the Royal Coach Inn on Friday, June 18, or at trackside, OMS, on Saturday. National club editor Kalo Piquet will be there to take your money. BRING A FRIEND WITH AN ALFA!

Automatic Berlina

From the July issue of Road Test magazine comes news of an optional automatic for the 1750 Berlina. For about $385, says Road Test, you will be able to order a Berlina L with a 3 speed ZF automatic shifted by a tunnel-mounted lever. No confirmation, of course, from El Segundo.

Alfa Dragster

An Alfa Romeo will reportedly be campaigned in U.S. drag racing by Delta Racing Enterprises of Metairie, La. Autoweek correspondent Dennis Cipnic will manage the team with the car driven by NHRA pilot Leon Greff.

Trans Am

Pete Brock's BRE Datsun 510 has suddenly emerged as the "car to beat" in this year's 2.5 Challenge series. At the wheel is John Morton, who has piloted Brock's highly successful Datsun 240-Z in Southern California amateur races. The 510 has captured the pole position in the last two Challenge races and handily won the most recent at Mid-Ohio. Horst Kwech's GTV took the first race of the season at Lime Rock and Gaston Andrey's GTA the second at Bryar. Rumor has it that Datsun is spending a quarter of a million (yes, two hundred and fifty thou) on the series!

Calendar

June 26,27	SCCA Regional Races at Ontario Motor Speedway
July 16	AROSC meeting at Little Lake Park, Santa Fe Springs, 8 PM

'Tee Chay' to be Expo Speaker

T. C. Browne of Peterson Publication's now deceased Sports Car Graphic will highlight our annual meeting on Saturday evening, June 19 at the Royal Coach Inn. Mr. Browne, who took local members on a magical mystery tour of the publication business at a monthly meeting earlier this year, has since visited the Factory in Milan. AROSC president Vince Giobbe has agreed to let "Tee Chay" be the star this time.
